Exhibit J: Business Record Location List

Most companies have numerous locations of business records including contracts, employment records and patient related information. A business record location tool is utilized as a record of where these records are located throughout the agency.

Description	Primary Location of Records	Alternate (Backup) Location of Records	Other Sources to Obtain Records